Professional Summary

I am a double cum laude graduate with an honors degree in Information Systems from the University of Johannesburg and a full-stack software developer with three years of hands-on experience.

Passionate about leveraging technology to solve real-world challenges, I specialize in web development, database design, cloud computing, API integration, and data analysis. Currently, I am a graduate at BMW, where I play a key role in digitization and innovation. My responsibilities span software development and Driving Assistant Functions testing (FAS) for the new X3 model, ensuring the seamless integration between software and hardware.

Previously, I worked as a Software Developer in BMW's Project Management Department, where I contributed to system migration to AWS and dashboard development for X3-G45 tracking, optimizing production insights through Oracle and Qlik Sense. With expertise in React for building responsive UIs and Python for backend development.

I approach challenges with a creative and analytical mindset, emphasizing time management, attention to detail, and adaptability. Committed to innovation, I strive to harness the power of technology to drive impactful solutions in the ever-evolving digital landscape.
